12. NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AS AT 30 JUNE 2010

1. STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICES

The significant accounting policies are set out below.

Basis of preparation of the Financial Report

The general purpose financial report has been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standard, including Australian Accounting Interpretations, other authoritative pronouncement of the Australian Accounting Standards Board and the Corporation Act 2001.

The financial report covers the consolidated entity of Quest Investments Limited and controlled entities (hereafter referred as "QST"). QST is a listed public company incorporated and domiciled in Australia.

The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the preliminary final report have been applied consistently to all periods presented in this report and are consistent with those disclosed in the 2009 financial report except the followings:

AASB 101 Presentation of Financial Statements ('AASB 101')

The group has applied revised AASB 101 from 1 July 2009 and now presents a statement of comprehensive income, which incorporates the income statement and all non-owner changes in equity. As a result, the group now presents all owner changes in the statement of changes in equity. The balance sheet is now referred to as the statement of financial position. There is a requirement to present a third statement of financial position if there is restatement of comparatives through either a correction of error, change in accounting policy or a reclassification. The cash flow statement is now referred to as the statement of cash flows.

AASB 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosure ('AASB 7')

This amended standard is applicable from 1 July 2009 and requires additional disclosure about fair value measurement of financial instruments, using a three level fair value hierarchy. The amendments also clarify the disclosure requirements about liquidity risks for derivative transactions and assets used for liquidity management.

AASB 8 Operating Segments ('AASB 8')

The group has applied AASB 8, which replaces AASB 114 'Segment Reporting', from 1 July 2009. AASB 8 requires a management approach to segment reporting based on the information reported internally.
